

Past President Duties & Responsibilities

- Commits to the vision, mission, and values of the Society
- Works with the incoming President to support knowledge transfer and a smooth transition to new leadership
- Offers guidance in decision-making to the President by ensuring access to necessary information and resources
- Shares their knowledge of the volunteer member community that will support effective leadership
- The Past President will be a member of the Standing Nominating Committee
- Welcomes the incoming President and encourages the Food Bank community members to demonstrate support
- Ensures continuity during governance transitions and organizational change
- Creates and shares with the new President a list of contacts in the Heartland region, community businesses, companies, politicians, and local organizations
- Provides mentorship to the Vice President and Board while acting as a resource to ensure awareness of policies, processes and the historical perspective are considered
- Acknowledges and reiterates that the incoming President will bring new ideas to invigorate the Society and present new possibilities
- Prepare position reports for monthly Board meetings and for the Annual General Meeting